

Compliant, Scalable, Safe

Sale day can feel like organized chaos when you've got hundreds of cars to move and sell. Safely. Your business depends on a smooth, consistent flow of vehicles. You can't afford accidents that damage your property or incidents that impact your top-line sales goals. You've got to scale up with a crew of knowledgeable, focused drivers and support staff who understand what it takes to make each auction a success. On time, every time. And when sale day ends, your workforce requirements scale down and change, from drivers to CR writers, mechanics, clerical support, and more. You need a reliable, one-stop staffing partner that understands your business needs every day and can provide a compliant, scalable, and safe team who will keep your auction and your revenue on track. You need PeopleReady.

DRIVEN FOR YOUR SUCCESS

PeopleReady is a national leader in staffing services for the auto auction industry. We know how important compliance and safety are, and we understand your desire for visibility into the workforce we send to your barn on sale day. That's why we are proud to be the only staffing company that offers an Auto Services Compliance Portal, an online resource giving you total visibility into each driver's background check, drug screen, and MVR. The PeopleReady team partners with each customer on sale day and every day, providing a scalable workforce solution that includes drivers — plus CR writers, mechanics, body and detail shop workers, and vehicle and tire technicians, as well as café, landscape, restroom, and janitorial personnel.

PeopleReady is leading the way with the industry's only Certified Auto Auction Specialist (CAAS) program, which trains, tests, and qualifies our staff members as experts in your business. Our program, recognized by both the National Independent Automobile Dealers Association and the National Auto Auction Association, requires each PeopleReady CAAS to spend time at auction sites to understand how they operate, pass a verbal and a written exam, and recertify annually.

When it comes to experience and knowledge of the auto auction industry, a PeopleReady partnership is one you can trust.
