- Temporary "New COVID-19 Leave" under DC Family and Medical Leave Act (DCFMLA) Workplace Poster - Updated January 14, 2022

THIS COVID-19 LEAVE NOTICE APPLIES TO EMPLOYERS OF WITH 20 OR MORE EMPLOYEES IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

Effective Date: November 5, 2021

SUBJECT

- 1. Starting November 5, 2021, an employee who has worked for 30 days for an employer with 20 or more employees may use up to 16 weeks of New COVID-19 Leave (D.C. Code § 32-502.01, version approved November 18, 2021) for one of the following reasons:
 - a. Positive Test Result if the employee tested positive for COVID-19 or is caring for a family member or individual with whom the employee shares a household who has tested positive for COVID-19 and must quarantine pursuant to Department of Health guidelines
 - b. Isolation or Quarantine if the employee has a recommendation from a health care provider or a directive from an employer that the employee isolate or quarantine due to COVID-19, including because the employee or an individual with whom the employee shares a household is at high risk for serious illness from COVID-19
 - c. Care for Other if the employee must care for a family member or an individual with whom the employee shares a household, who is isolating or quarantining pursuant to Department of Health guidance, the recommendation of a health care provider, or the order or policy of the family member's or individual's school or childcare provider
 - d. Childcare Closure if the employee must care for a child whose school or place of care is closed or whose childcare provider is unavailable to the employee due to COVID-19.
- 2. Certification An employer may request reasonable certification of the need, such as:
 - a. Dated test result
 - b. Health care provider signed and dated statement
 - c. Copy of Department of Health guidance and documentation demonstrating need to comply
 - d. Copy of childcare facility policy or written statement from the facility.
- 3. Advance Notice An employee must provide advance notice where possible, or otherwise as soon as possible after a need to take leave arises.
- 4. Unpaid Leave New COVID-19 Leave is unpaid, but an employee may use accrued paid leave, which counts against the 16-week entitlement.
- 5. Penalties A violation of COVID-19 leave provisions could result in a fine of $1,000 per offense as well as damages outlined in D.C. Code § 32-509.
- 6. Effective Dates New COVID-19 Leave is available starting November 5, 2021.
