

Part of what makes PeopleReady a Company worth working for is its commitment to doing the right thing.

This commitment is why PeopleReady has zero tolerance for any form of fraud. Whether it is a request from a customer, employee, or manager, always immediately report this type of illegal conduct.

PeopleReady is committed to reporting to law enforcement and prosecuting all known fraud offenders, and we are thankful for your help in keeping this commitment.

Fraud, as defined herein, encompasses any act taken with the intent to unlawfully deprive another of money or property through deception, guile or other unfair means. The term covers such acts as fraudulent transactions, documentary or electronic forgery, theft, embezzlement or misappropriation of company assets, and deceptive, unauthorized or dishonest pecuniary benefits to employees, management, customers and third parties.
